Dear Friends,

I am at a crossroads, a moment that will determine my future and the future of the work I have spent many decades creating. At 71, I can look back at a life filled with magic and surprises far beyond what my imagination would ever have considered possible. As a scrawny awkward child, I would never have thought I would eventually become a scrawny, sometimes awkward spiritual teacher. The body of work I've co-created with Mark, with Thoth and other neteru, with students, and with co-authors and colleagues of the highest caliber and integrity is vast, wide-ranging, and hopefully, is filled with tools that have and will continue to bring healing and solutions to a chaotic and suffering world.

Although I may be a good teacher and a decent writer, I've never really been good at end games. Conversations tend to drag on past numerous logical conclusions. Goodbyes stretch just beyond the appropriate departure. I believe I treat end games and significant life change similarly: living life as usual (even as exciting and dynamic as it is) needs to change and I'm asking for your help.

With the physical limitations that plague me and the deteriorating political situation throughout the world, my desire to travel beyond my current commitments (see below) is diminishing. My time with Mark and our grandchildren is becoming more of a priority, and I have contracted for two more books that require considerable time and attention, which precludes galavanting around the world.

Brittney, my loyal assistant who has had my back for the last several years, is making the wise decision to return to school, a decision I support, particularly as things are slowing down here. Of course, I will need a replacement, hopefully in time for the new person to be trained by Brittney before school begins this fall. If you know a qualified person in Eugene, Oregon who needs 15 to 25 hours per week of detailed office management, administrative support, and personal assistance, please let me know, or have them call me for more details.

The Work has grown considerably since Power Animal Meditations, Alchemical Healing, and Planetary Healing were published, and it all seems to interweave with the teachings from the Egyptian Mysteries. I would like to know what you would like to learn from me, and how you would have me best serve our community and our world. My first thoughts of how to proceed with my work is to create a year-long certification training for practitioners of Alchemical and Planetary Healing students, with an eye toward creating as many qualified teachers as possible.

I have also discovered that I love to do Anubis Oracle readings and private Alchemical Healing and shamanic consulting sessions, which I would like to continue whenever possible, and perhaps develop into small packages or even private trainings, or small, connected group trainings. Please let me know your thoughts on this idea.

So I guess I am asking for guidance from you who know me and my work. Who of you out there would commit to a nine-month or year-long training program that would include at least one five day retreat at my home, Skype mentorship and tele/web/classes. And, what would you most like to learn from me?

I love my web store, HathorsMirror.com. It's hard to compete with Amazon, however we will continue to have specials that, hopefully, will help you decide to support the authors and artists we carry. Please let me know if there are particular products that you would like to see at our shop.

Well, I guess that's enough for the moment, except for the events that are coming up. Please join me for the following:

Free Planetary Healing Call to Action

Tuesday, August 5th at 6pm/Pacific

Our next Free Planetary Healing Call to Action is just a few days away and in the midst of all that is going on, especially in the Middle East, I'm leaning toward the "Blanket over Kosovo" guided meditation from Planetary Healing (pg. 90) with appropriate changes to make it pertinent to the ongoing crises. Please share your comments and topic suggestions when you register for the call here, and encourage your friends and family to join us. The more of us there are on the call, the more powerful and effective the work will be.

Pilgrimage to Egypt with Nicki Scully

October 28 - November 11, 2015

After a 36-year love affair with Egypt, returning again and again to quest for direct experience and articulation, I've somehow reached a new level of perception of the layers of myth and meaning through which ancient Egypt speaks. Allow me to share with you as we explore the Mysteries together and spend nine nights sailing down the Nile on our private dahabeya. Call me sooner than later if you have any questions or simply visit the tour page on ShamanicJourneys.com and you can register for more information online. This trip is filling quickly.

I look forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you in advance for any advice and suggestions you feel will be helpful in my time of life changes. Your feedback means a great deal to me.

*in joy and with much love,
Nicki Scully*
