Dear Friends,

Autumn is harvest time, traditionally the busiest time of the year. I did manage to dry and use in one way or another every pear and peach, however I may have too many apples to process them all. I'd like to report that the apple tree that came down in the big snow last spring is our latest miracle. You may remember the photo of it lying down with its roots, all but a small portion, sticking up in the air. It lay there for two weeks because everyone but me said it could never come back. I finally hired someone with a winch to lift it back up, and we packed rich composted soil in the hole under the roots. Today, this ancient wonder is bearing the best apples ever! I offer deep gratitude for this miracle, and I hope it reminds you to be alert to all of the possible miracles and especially the ones that are happening around you all the time.

Free Planetary Healing Call to Action—The Flock

Saturday, November 9, 11am Pacific

As promised, I am inviting you to another Planetary Healing Call to Action via easy to use audio/video Zoom technology. Because most everyone who was on the last Call asked me to repeat the journey verbatim in order to go deeper, we will be introducing The Flock to more people, and will include some feedback from those who took it via the recording. Somehow, even with the technical difficulties and the noise, people loved it and sent in great shares. Please let others know, as we are thinking that The Flock is the most important Planetary Healing work we've created to date. Also, we have a great hostess who will handle the technical stuff that got away from me last time. So now, the more the merrier!

Register online here and note, the time in the US will have changed the previous week (Back one hour). Please check your time so that you join the call Saturday, November 9th 11AM Pacific Standard time. Also, please share this link with your friends.

Here are some of the shares from our last Planetary Healing Call:

"I see my wings spread out like the wings of a stealth bomber, ready to fly at supersonic speeds, turn on the center of a point, dive directly down into the water and below, able to travel under water without any concerns for long distances or depth, and then swoop up immediately into the sky again."

—Deborah I. Australia

"About two weeks ago (before the Call) I spontaneously sprouted wings out of my back. I was in meditation and wanted to KNOW something and spirit said "What does it do for you to know— you can know or you can do. Which do you want?" I said I would rather do, and the wings sprouted! I was to wrap my wings around a situation and love it. I could grab a person's emotions in my claws and take them to the sun... Today's journey established being a bird even further and more real... feeling the feathers and sensing... and my job was to seek and take toxic emotions from the planet to the sun or to the center of the Earth to burn and transform. That fed me and transmuted the energy on the planet... Also, even in primordial goo there is joy and there is love... I now have greater energy to work with... Loved the Call! Bird energy is coming to heal!" —Deanna C, NC

"White Bird has shown all of us the most amazing things... After the Call he showed me how to tune into the energy of the world as it is today. It was very heavy static energy that was not comfortable; it made me VERY TIRED. He showed me how to shift the heavy energy just by tuning into it. When I did the energy started to transform into non-toxic energy that took on a light, peaceful frequency that slowly transformed into something that could be absorbed and go through a person without side-effects. After doing that I was not tired ANYMORE! Then, when tuning into toxic smells, they became a different frequency, more gentle and easier to tolerate... I can see more clearly now." —Judyann N, Canada

"My journey to and with The Flock was very powerful and very VIVID. I became a giant pelican, an iridescent, shiny-feathered pelican who was also a crow... An image shimmered into my journey and I became a 'soap bubble' pelican crow bird... I dove immediately into the ocean and went down, down, down. My feathers could breathe and my throat became like the blue whale, only instead of eating krill, I ate micro-plastic. When I was full, I rose to the surface and burst through the surface of the ocean and soared through the air. I pooped gumdrops. No shit. LOL. Red ones. I spit out a mouthful of coffee while laughing and at the end opened my eyes to my Egyptian statue of Thoth. Yep. Covered in coffee. So I am a Call to Action girl now! Healing the planet one gumdrop poop at a time." —Jane S, Canada

Mystery School

6 2+ hour classes Tuesdays, 11am Pacific starting November 5— recordings only at this time

My Mystery School course with Normandi on The Union of Isis and Thoth is full for the live class, but we are still taking registrations for the recordings. It turns out that the inner temple (adytum) that we will be building is not in the book; it is entirely new and meant for those who are ready to steward the planet and support the Egyptian neteru family in a new way. The book remains relevant and reading it is fundamental to this course. Although we will talk about the communal temple, and open it in the first class, the instructions for building it are in the book. We will create a Google Group so that everyone who is registered, whether in class or by recordings will be able to share and communicate with one another, and I will be able to check in and respond as needed.

More details and register for the class here...

Global Spiritual Awakening Conference

I will be presenting in the Global Spiritual Awakening Conference November 16-17. I will be speaking about the relevance of ancient Egyptian wisdom and especially the goddess, Sekhmet, in our current time, and providing a journey/initiation from Sekhmet.

Although this conference doesn't have the numbers of teachers they had initially hoped for, Robin Rose, one of the producers, used to create some of the best conferences in which I've participated.

Therefore I am confident that this one will be worthwhile. For more information and to register, please use this link: <https://tickets.brightstarevents.com/event/the-global-spiritual-awakening-conference/tag/GSACScully>.

Egypt

There are still a few places left in Indigo's March tour to Egypt, and Normandi Ellis, my dear sister, priestess, shaman, scholar and guide, will be teaching on this tour. Normandi also has the advantage of fluency in reading hieroglyphs, a rare blend of attributes that will make this a journey of a lifetime! If Egypt has been calling you, I think now is the time. Although Egypt is full of tourists from all over the world right now, Indigo's special privileges and private time at the most important monuments make everything about this tour feel intimate, even private. By the way, I carry all of Normandi's relevant books, including her first direct translation from hieroglyphs, Awakening Osiris: The Egyptian Book of the Dead, a copy of which should be in every metaphysician's library. It's in my on-line store, www.HathorsMorrer.com.

The following is from Indigo:

Greetings from Luxor, Egypt!

I have just completed an amazing journey with a potent group of seekers with Jyoti from the Center for Sacred Studies, each deeply dedicated to the Earth and her healing. We entered the Egyptian Mysteries with intention and love, and came out the otherside integrated and whole. As I move forward to the next journeys in the spring of 2020, I am filled with gratitude for the gift of sharing this sacred land with those called to join me, and to Nicki for laying the foundation that makes it possible and for all she did to develop and grow spiritual tours in Egypt. She was one of the first to be offering shamanic tours, and now many others have followed. She truly created a unique spiritual niche. I am deeply honored and humbled to have been handed the baton to the Egyptian Mysteries Sacred Tours directly from her. For more information about my tours, please go to http://mysteriesofegypt.com. Perhaps, if Egypt is calling you home, one day you will join me, and in this light I am grateful to share my current 2020 offerings:

The Gifts of Ma'at Live Online Class

Begin the year 2020 with clear vision of how you are choosing to walk with truth in your life. Join Zahra Indigo to learn more about Ma'at, the Egyptian concept and goddess of Truth, order, harmony, and cosmic law during this live online course in January 2020. These eight 2 hour classes will lead you on an inner journey to align yourself with Truth so that you may move through your days with a heart as light as the feather of Ma'at. Each class will include information, journeys, journaling and sharing. This class is offered through Zoom, an online video based conference system. All classes will be recorded.

Egypt Tour April 4 - 17, 2020 - The Light of Truth and the Gifts of Ma'at

This extraordinary pilgrimage will be lead by Zahra Indigo with special guest, Egyptian native, Sayed. The intention for this remarkable pilgrimage is to shine the light of truth into our hearts in order to receive the inner and outer guidance that awaits us in Egypt. Together, we will create a beautiful journey sharing sacred space, learning, growing, exploring, and writing as we wander through this ancient land, float along the River Nile aboard our private dahabeya, and feel the profound nature of the light during our explorations of the sites we visit. Additionally, those who join this tour will have free access to the recordings from Zahra Indigo's January class, The Gifts of Ma'at.
